ON THE TRAIL OF DYNAMITERS.

Transit Company Detectives Claim Illinois Miners Are Here to Blow Up Cars.

MORE EXPLOSIVE IS FOUND.

Discovery Made in Home of Men Arrested Tuesday - Defendants to Be Prosecuted on Misdemeanor Charges.

Detectives in the employ of the St. Lostis Transit Company are said to be on the trail of a number of expert dynamiters who are wing up the company's cars. According to one source the men are Ulinols miners engaged because of their experience in hundling dynamite. It is said the detectives are in possession of the names of the men, but they refuse to give them out until the suspects have been captured.

Manager Baumhoff said last night: "I have received information from a reliable source that these mirers have been sent or imported into the city for the purpose of dynamiting the care and property of the transit company. That they have been active in this work I have almost positive information. They are not alone in the undertaking, but are aided and abetted by others. Their mission, so far as my information goes, is to educate the lawless men of this city in the proper method of handling dynamite, they being supposed to have a superior knowledge by reason of their long experience with the explosive,

"We have a good line on these people and they are being carefully watched. We are working to obtain evidence against them and their willing pupils, and within a short time we will be able to round up the guilty persons with conclusive evidence of their suilt. The time is not yet ripe. We will hopelessly entangle them."

Police officers under command of Captain McNamee found for pounds of dynamite yesterday in the house at No. 1238 Armstrong avenue, which is occupied by Luther B. Smith and Horace P. Begyes, two striking motormes. Four pounds were found in the house early Tuesday morning, when the two men were arrested on suspicion of being Implicated in the blowing up of a car at Cardinal and Chouteau avenues a few bours

After searching for two days for a litt under which to presecute the prisoners Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson yesterday located a rection under the firh laws which forbids the storing or keeping of any dynamite in the city without a permit from the Mayor. A violation of the law is made a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than $50, or imprisonment of more than less than Sot, or imprisonment of more final a year. Warrants were issued against Smith and Beaves and they furnished bond.
Sergeaut Boland and Officers Riley and Pelzer of the Mounted District yesterday received word that there was more dynamits stored in the house, and they made mite stored in the house, and they make a second visit there. As soon as they entered the house, Mrs. Smith, the wife of one of the defendants, informed them that she had found ten more sticks of the explosive, which she promptly turned over to them. A further search of the house was made, but no more explosive were found. Mrs. Smith said that the dynamite was brought to the house three nights before the arrest, but this statement is at variance with that of her husband, who de-clared to the Chief of Detectives that it

J. R. Richardson, a Laciede avenue conductor, who was shot at Grand and La-ciede avenues on May is, yesterday iden-tified Smith as the man who shot him. Special Officer Sam Yutes, who was on the scene, also identified Smith as one of the men who assisted in pulling the motorman from the car in the same riot, and carrying him into the West End Coliseum, which is a headquarters for strikers. Smith denies both charges, though he admits that he was on a car at the time. Warrants will be applied for in both cases to-say.

Thomas Whalen of No. 2823 Hickory street, formerly employed by the St. Louis Transit Company as a motorman on the Chouteau avenue division, was arrested at his home last night by Detectives Joyce and Thorne in connection with the blowing up of a Chouteau avenue car at Jefferson and Chouteau avenues June 19.

MANAGER JENKINS'S ANSWER.

Suburban Railroad and Messrs. Woodworth, Capstick and Faris of the Grieveance Com-mittee of the Suburban Union met yester-day at Mr. Jenkins's office in De Hadiamittee of the Suburban Union met yesterday at Mr. Jenkins's office in De Hodiamont and discussed the delay incident to the completion of the Board of Arbitration and settlement of the questions involved in the controversy between the union and the management.

The meeting was entirely friendly, and no incident occurred calculated to defer the establishment of cordiality between the company and its union employes. The Grievance Committee represented to Mr. Jetkins that more than four weeks had elapsed since Herman W. Steinbiss and Scott H. Blewett were selected as arbitrators by the men and the company, respectively, yet nothing had been done, and the two arbitrators had been unable to agree upon a third man to complete the board.

In view of this fact it was suggested that the resignations of both Mr. Steinbiss and Mr. Blewett be accepted and two others substituted in their stead. Manager Jerkins advised the members of the committee that he was as anxious as they were for a settlement and regretted the delay that had occurred. He told the members that he would have to consider the matter before giving a positive answer. He advised the committee that he would save to-day at 3 p. m.

This was entirely satisfactory, and the answer to-day at 3 p. m.

This was entirely satisfactory, and the conference adjourned to meet at 3 o'clock to-day to receive Manager Jenkins's reply.

POSSE STAYS FOR TWO WEEKS.

Governor Says It Will Be Main tained Until July 4.

Governor Stephens held a conference at the Four Courts yesterday morning with Chief of Police Campbell and Prisident Hawes of the Police Ecard to discuss the matter of discharging the Sheriff's posse. It was decided to continue it in force for the present. At the conclusion of the conference Governor Stephens said:

"I do not think there is any probability that the posse will be discharged before the Fourth of July. On that day there is always a good deal of excitement, and this year there may be some additional demonstration. I think it best to maintain the posse until that time. If the fourth goes by all right and the simution continues to improve as it has in the last few days I would favor the gradual discharge of the posse, say 50s at a time, until it is clearly shown they are not needed.

Last night before departing for Jefferson City the Governor said: "Of the complants about the police failing to do their duty since the strike started, I have to say that the charges are indiscriminate and not specific. To-day the Police Eouri had about thirty cases of this kind up for examination, but in only two or three of them was guilt established. I believe that the cry which has gone up for militia came mainly from men who wished to avoid serving on the posse.

"All the deputies are willing to serve."

posse.

"All the deputies are willing to serve who are at present sworn in. I do not think that conditions have reached a point whete it would be safe to withdraw the posse. The boycott which exists in the city may cause lawlessness with which the police could not cope. I believe the dynamiting done has been more for the purpose of frightening people off the transit cars than to actually kill anybody."

The Governor returned to Jefferson City on the Silo p. m. train.

SOLDIERS MAY JOIN POSSE.

Colonel Sinclair Says He Has No Objection.

Objection.

The action of Lieutenant Colonel Holt-camp and several members of the First Regiment in joining the Sheriff's posse yesterday has caused some comment. It was rumored yesterday that this action was taken against the wishes of the State authorities.

Colonel Sinclair last night said: "As far as I know there has been no very serious objections to officers and men of the First Regiment joining the posse. When the posse was first called out I was summoned to be sworn in. When I arrived word had been sent from Jefferson City that no members of the National Guard should be compelled to take service in the posse, as they were already in the service of the State. Since that, however, a great many of the members have joined the posse, the Sheriff having promised that in case the militia were called out they would be discharged from the posse. The action of Lieutenant Colonel Holtcamp was taken after due consideration and meets with my approval."

INCIDENTS OF THE STRIKE.

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson yesterday issued a warrant charging assault and battery against August Hahn, who was arrested Tuesday night for throwing a rock at Motorman George Hall in charge of Cherokee car No. 283.

charge of Cherokee car No. 283.

A Jefferson avenue car in charge of Motorman William J. Collins and Conductor Matthew Doss collided with a Union bus at the intersection of Ann avenue yesterday morning, almost completely wrecking the wagon and throwing several of the passengers to the street. Miss Lizzle Brueggemann of No. 2019 California avenue was painfully bruised. Charles L. Sitton of No. 2025 South Seventh street, the driver of the bus, became angry, claiming that the collision was intentional, and made an assault on Motorman Collins with a spoke from one of the broken wheels. Collins drew his revolver, and held Sitton back until the crowd was quieted by the police. Several witnesses say that the accident was unavoidable. The wagon passengers became angry, and Conductor Doss offered them each 10 cents to pay fare in another vehicle. Several of them took the money.

Several of them took the money.

Henry Thies, who conducts a boarding-house at No. 1513 Washington avenue, engaged in an altercation with one of his boarders yesterday morning which resulted in a warrant for assault and battery being issued against him. Among his boarders are Mrs. Anna Matier and her husband, who is an employe of the St. Louis Transit Company, in the last few weeks they have become in arrears for board and there was a dispute between Mrs. Matier and Thies. An hour afterwards she appeared at the Four Courts, and said that while she held her child in her arms, Thies struck her in the face. Mr. Johnson promptly issued a warrant.

A number of citizens of Wellston met last night at Hamel's Hall No. 6391 Easton avenue, and organized a strike sympathiz-ers' club. Speeches were made indorsing the position of the strikers and promising financial and moral aid.

J. C. Stewart of the firm of James Stewart & Co. of St. Louis, was elected Captain of Company F of the Sheriff's posse yesterday to fill the vacancy occasioned by the promotion of Captain Buchanae, formerly of that company, to the position of Major and Assistant Commander of the posse. Captain Stewart has been in the company since it was originally organized and has had considerable experience as a seldier in the militia of Missouri.

Very little beyond routine work was done at the posse barracks yesterday. There were about twenty new arrivals during the day. The resignation of Captain Harstow of Company M was accepted by Colonel Cavender. His place was filled by Lieutenant Colonel Holtcamp of the First Regiment, N. G. M. Adjutant Webster's office is being filled temporarily by Quartermaster Rowss.

William Linders of No. 3837 Suilivan avenue, David Heinemann of Grand and Sulivan avenues, and Frank Schwenk of Spring and Sullivan avenues, I5-year-old boys, were arrested last night at Spring and Sullivan avenues on a charge of placing obstructions on the transit company's tracks.

LANDS RIGHTFULLY GRANTED. Kewanaw Ship Canal Dispute Finally Settled in Court.

Marquette, Mich., June 29.—Judge Severans of the United States Court of the Western District of Michigan, northern division, has just filed a decision in the case of the United States against the Lake Superior Ship Canal, Railway and Iron Company and the Kewanaw Association, two allied corporations, with the successor of the Portage Lake and Ship Canal Company, which built the ship canal across Kewanaw Peninsula.

built the ship canal across Kewanaw Peninsula.

This company was aided by a grant of lands, and in the congressional act, authorizing, there was a provision that they could be taken anywhere in the Upper Peninsula, but must not be lands which had been previously designated by the United States as mineral lands.

The grant was attacked on that point. It was claimed that the Secretary of the Interior unlawfully certified them. The Judga holds against this contention, asserting that the lands were certified in accordance with the geological survey of 1847, the only classification ever made by the Government in this part of the country.

NO VERDICT IN SCHUMACKER CASE.

After Numerous Ballots Jury Fails to Agree and Is Discharged Until This Morning.

DEFENDANT ON THE STAND.

Denies That Miss Hesser Was Shoved Out of His Place and Declares 'She Was Protected by His Patrons.

At 8 o'clock last night the jury in the ise of Herman Schumneker, the grocer charged with assault and battery upon Pauline Hesser, who was denuded by a crowd in South St. Louis on Sunday, June 3 aanounced that no agreement had been reached. Judge Clark thereupon discharged the jury until le o'clock this morning. The jury, it is said, stood ten for acquittal and two for conviction.

Schumacker is the man who is alleged to have denied refuge to Miss Hesser when pursued by the erowd, and to have forced her out of his grocery into the waiting arms of those camoring for her. The trial has been in progress in the Court of Criminal Correction for two days, and the testimony was concluded vesterday afternoon.

The defendant, Schumacker, was the principal witness of the day in his own defense. Mr. Schumacker is medium-sized, stoutly built, and wears colored glasses on account of an affection which has destroyed the sight of the left eye. He was cool and composed when giving his testimony and was unruffled by the critical crossexamination to which he was subjected.

Schumacker said that he was in the grocery with his clerk when he heard a comotion in the saloon and yard in the rear. and, going back, saw Pauline Hesser run ounded by a mob. She was bareheaded and her hair was disarranged, but her clothing, he thought, was not torn or diserranged at that time. She attempted to run up the stairs in the yard leading to his apartments, but he told her she could not do so, as his wife was upstairs, very sick. She desisted, but when the mol and he again warned her not to go up.

Then, he said, she begged him to allow permission. He and two other men kept the crowd away from her while she arranged her hair. The crowd was trying to urge into the saloon through the side door, and he forced them back, After she had arranged her hair, the girl started for the front door of the grocery, through the saloon and kreetry, accompanied by a young man who declared he would protect her from assault as far as he was able.

Defendant on the Stand.

Witness said he stood at the back door of the saloon, and kept the crowd from following her, until the crowd, seeing her intention of exemples the crowd, seeing her intention of escaping through the grocery, ran out of the yard and around Tenth street, to head her off. Then he followed Miss Hesser and the young man to the front door of the grocery. When they went out he closed the door, and went back to walt on customers in the saloon. He said he had not laid a finger on the girl at any time and had not advised, ordered or compelled her to leave the premises.

On cross-examination he said that when he saw the crowd in the yard and on the streets he was frightened but feared they might injure him or his family. The crowd seemed to be excited and boisterous and he was frightened also. The reason he re-fused to allow Miss Hesser to go upstairs was because his wife was very sick and subject to nervous prestration, and he feared the results to her if the crowde followed Miss Hesser upstairs. He admitted that he had not made any effort to offer her a refuge from the threat-ning crowd, or to protect her beyond preventing the crowd following her from the yard.

Witness also denied any recollection of having made a statement to either the police or newspaper reporters to the effect that he had shoved Miss Hesser out because he feused if he offered to protect her it would

Chief Desmond and a newspaper reporter, to whom Schumacker had made a statement in the holdover, were recalled to testify in in the holdover, were recalled to testify in rebuttal on the point, but their evidence was objected to and the objection sustained. Phillip Huebler testified that he was in the saloon when Miss Hesser passed through under the escort of the young man. He said that Schumacher had not laid a hand on Miss Hesser.

Schumacker declared that he did not know the young man who had volunteered to protect Miss Hesser, and that he had made efforts to find him later, without result.

Arguments of Attorneys. Henry Ingispols, Philip Hesch, William Zika and B. N. Cramer, the clerk, also testified, their evidence corroborating that of Schumacker in the main. The case was given to the jury at the conclusion of Schumacher.

Schumacker in the main. The case was given to the jury at the conclusion of Schumacker's testimony.

Attorney Bass made the opening argument. He cautioned the jury to consider only the facts and the evidence in the case, and not allow themselves to be carried away by any sentlmental appeal to their chivalry and manhood, which, he feared, the prosecution would attempt. He attacked the Police Department, and also the press, which, he said, by its sensational handling of the case, had attempted to arouse the people to a pitch where their passions would override their judgment.

Prosecuting Attorney Harry Clover followed in a masterly effort, in which as declared that the assault charged against Schumacher was no ordinary assault, but one which appealed to the highest principles of manhood, the commission of which was an act that outraged every feeling of humanity in the breast of every man who had a wife, mother or sister, it was en outrage which was condemned, he said, tot only in this community, but throughout the country, and merited a punishment in consonance with the humiliating and dasta: lly results which had followed it. His arguigment for a conviction was an eloquent appeal to the highest instincts of civilized peal to the highest instincts of civilized manhood.

The jury retired at 5 o'clock and immediately begat: balloting upon the verdist. From the outset there appeared to be a strong sentiment in favor of acquittal, the ballot at one time, it is said, being if to 2 for acquittal. The minority argued that the fair name and reputation of the city and its citizens demanded that Schurmacker be severely punished, but the majority was firm in its opposition.

PRAISE FOR MARY BUCK.

Suggestion of Rewarding Her Meets With General Approval.

The suggestion to reward Miss Mary Buck of No. 1501 South Broadway, who, at great personal risk, rescued Miss Eva Doman of No. 1634 Stewart place, from an an gry mob at South Broadway and Barry streets Sunday afternoon, seems to nave met with very general approval. That he met with very general approval. That her heroism deserves mest substantial recognition every one admits. It is generally agreed, however, that if she can obtain permanent employment at remunerative wages with some reliable firm, which would enable her to move to a more congenial neighborhood in the city and support her aged mother in comparative comfort, it would be more appropriate recognition of her value than by paying her in money.

Miss Buck herself is entirely pleased at the suggestion and while poor and willing to accept whatever may be done for her that is likely to lighten the burden she has to bear, much prefers that the assistance rendered be of such a nature as to put her in a position to help herself. With the innate medesty of all brave persons, she reluctantly expresses any opinion on the subject. She said yesterday: "It is certainly good and kind of the people to offer me assistance and, situated as I am, I cannot refuse it, but I cannot zee that I have done anything to merit all these kindnesses of both word and deed. I only did my duly; anybody with a spark of humanity in a Satisfactory Interview.

A committee of South Broadway merchants called on Sheriff Pohlman yesterday and requested him to give instructions to the members of the posse comitatus stationed in the southern section of the city to exercise more discrimination in the discharge of their duties. It has been charged by the merchants that the deputies were unduly severe in ordering women and children off the streets and in other ways.

Sheriff Pohlman agreed to see to it that there would be no need of a recurrence of the complaints. At the same time he declared that the possemen were commissioned to preserve order and that this would always be the first consideration. As a result of this interview with the Sheriff the merchants will not visit his office in a body today, as had been contemplated.

them would have done the same. The only difference is the opportunity came to me ard not to the others."

Miss Buck's neighbors and acquisintances speak in the highest terms of her. Mrs. Mary Flagle of No. 69 Barry street said: "I have known Mary since she was a little girl, and almost ever since I have known her she has been a studious, honest, hard-working girl. Wby, I remember when she was only 12 years old, she commenced sewing to help sustain bet family. Many an evening she would work until nearly mishing to help sustain bet family, Many an evening she would work until nearly mishing to help sustain bet family, Many an evening she would be in front of her, and thus the next day's lesson would be learned. For several years she had had her shop and home at her present quarters, and I never have heard her name mentioned except in palse."

A number of business men said yesterday they thought the idea of obtaining a good position for Miss Buck was a capital one and the best possible way of rewarding her for her heroiem.

Mr. Joseph Franklin, vice president of the William Barr Dry Goods Company, said: "In my opinion no more appropriate mode of rewarding Miss Buck would be hit uton than by flading for her a good place in the business in which she is qualified. By such means, she will be put in a position to help herself, and no greater favor can be done a person than to put them where they will have opportunities to develop whatever talents they may have. Of course, it goes without saying that Miss Buck would not also she must have the ability to perform the duties of whatever position might be given her. Miss Joan Welsh, a servant, 22 years old, imployed at No. 2943 Lucky street, was assaulted last night at 9 o'clock by two women soon after she alighted from a Vandeventer avenue car at the intersection of Lucky street. Her assailants knocked her down with their fists, pounced upon her and beat her severely. She cried for assistance, but, despite the fact that there were several witnesses to the assault, no one volunteered to protect her, and it was not until after her dress had been torn and her face lacerated that she escaped from the women who set upon her.

There were, however, among others, two misstatements calculated to mislead the general public, and there we wish to acswer.

It is stated that Mr. Mahon and other leaders have profited financially by this strike, and there have advised violence in closed meetings, lioth statements are ansolutely untrue, as neither Mr. Mahon nor ary other leader has received a dollar of the fineds so generously given by the public to help our cause, rot has he or any other leader advised violence in closed or open neeting, or anywhere seles, but on the contrary, has advised and comprehend most strongly against such a course.

"The greatest damage has been done since June 1. North Dakota and Northern Minnesota have been the heaviest sufferers. There are really few localities in the three States where an average crop is now in prospect, it is now said that North Dakota will raise little more than enough wheat for seed.

"Conditions are worse in Manitoba." riot at Fifteenth and Chambers street, on June 7. Goettling lingured until the 12th when he died at the City Hospital.
Goettling was a spectator to the riot when he was shot. There were about 100 shots fired on both sides during which no one was injured. After a few second's full another shot was fired and Goettling feil mortally wounded. George Busby, a passenger on one of the cars attacked said that Joseph Farrell, a transit guard on the car fired the shot which killed Goettling. Policeman Collins, who was on the scene, said that a man by the name of Louis English had stated to him that Farrell did the shooting. Goettling fell in English's arms.

Coroner Lloyd continued the inquest until to-morrow in order to have English brought in.

PUBLIC WILL PROTEST.

Rate Agreement of Presidents of Eastern Railways.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, ill., June 20.—There will be a strong protest from the traveling public over the action of presidents of Eastern roads in agreeing to charge extra fare between Chicago and New York for the privilege of riding on fast trains.

Seven of the railroads between here and Gotham will either have to lengthen the time of their principal trains to a snail's pace or charge from il to it additional fare. The new ruling will hit several of the roads hard. The Lake Shore has but one train that consumes as many as twenty-eight that consumes as many as twenty-eight. that consumes as many as twenty-eight hours between the two cities. The time of all its other flyers will have to be length-ened or extra fare added.

SEVEN CHARTERS SUSPENDED.

Heights and the main Lindell line as far west as Taylor avenue, only," said Manager George W. Baumhoff of the St. Louis Transit Company yesterday.

"These are the lines that are carrying the people, and there is no call for owl cars on any of the other lines. It would be useless to run owl cars on the north and south lines, and also extremely dangerous. As soon as there is a demand for owl cars on other lines they will be run."

Mr. Baumhoff said that so far as the transit company is concerned the strike is practically at an end.

"The cars," he said. "are being run to the complete satisfaction of the management, and the travel is steadily increasing." Indianapolis, June 20.-8. B. Donnelle resident of the international Typographical Inion, has suspended the charters of the
